

LIZ GARTNER

Liz was born in Hungary of Hungarian parents. During the Second World War, at the age of 3, with her parents, moved to Germany where she spent the next 11 years of her life.

In 1955 she migrated with her parents to Australia, which has since been her home.

From 1970 until 1975 she studied Commercial Art General and Fashion Drawing at the South Australian School of Arts and passed with distinctions. She worked as a Commercial Artist for 16 years in major Department Stores and worked for Ogelve and Mather Advertising agency, she continued after as a free lance Artist.

Liz has studied art under some of Australia's best-known and most highly respected Artists including DORA CANT, MARY MILTON, MARJORY HANN, ARTHUR PHILLIPS, YONG LIM, IVARS JANSONS, ROSS PATERSON, ROBERT WADE, DAVID TAYLOR, JOSEPH ZBUKVIC and MAXWELL WILKES.

As an Associate Member of the Royal S .A. Society of Arts and of the Adelaide Art Society, Liz has exhibited her works with great success and with each showing, has enhanced her reputation.

Liz's wealth of experience and her recognition as an outstanding artist and teacher over 20 years reveal why she is in such immense demand for Workshops, Demonstrations and as an Art Exhibition Judge

Liz's main love is art and although she works in many mediums, Acrylic, Gauche, Pastel, Ink on rice paper, Charcoal her preference is for watercolours for the sheer beauty, transparency and delicacy. Many of her works hang interstate and overseas including Canada, Japan, England, Germany and America.
